

City of Goldsboro Little Known Black History Fact From Downtown Goldsboro....

Adrian Worrell founded Worrell Contracting Co., Inc. on January 1, 1997. In 2000, Worrell Contracting was legally formed as a corporation. Worrell Contracting is certified as a Serviced Disable Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB), a Licensed General Highway and Public Utilities (Water & Sewer Lines) Contractor for the State of North Carolina, a Licensed Landscape Contractor for the State of North Carolina and a Licensed Pesticide Applicator for the States of North Carolina, South Carolina & Virginia. Worrell Contracting Co., Inc. was started in the home of Adrian and his wife, Selena Worrell, who has worked side by side with her husband since 2008. The business has transformed through the years and now the Administrative Office is located in a 3,600 square foot office space in Historic Downtown Goldsboro, NC at 201 North Center Street. Today, Worrell Contracting Co., Inc. employs 58 employees throughout the US and has contracts in 11 states.

Mr. Worrell chose Historic Downtown Goldsboro for the location of their new office space because of the new & vibrant growth that is currently taking place in the area. Which was reminiscent of the offices in large downtowns full of history and lots to do; he and his wife, Selena visited during many of their travels for work. As well as, the great memories he and his wife, Selena had growing up in Goldsboro visiting and attending downtown events such as the Christmas Parade and making a day of it.
