

My Dream Day

Let the countdown begin. We'll show you how to spend a perfectly peaceful 24 hours in Goldsboro, NC.

9:00 a.m.

Wake up alfresco in the cabins of Cliffs of the Neuse State Park, where I wake to the amazing sound of freedom: Jet Noise!

9:30 a.m.

Pick up some breakfast pastries from one of the oldest bakeries in NC — Mickey's Pastries.

11:00 a.m.

Yoga at Well-Traveled Beer — hit the yoga mat in my favorite craft beer room. $5 is donated to a local charity for every person in attendance. When that's over, grab a delicious beer on tap because it's 5 o'clock somewhere!

12:00 p.m.

Work up my lunch appetite with a stroll down the beautiful historic streets of downtown and popping in and out of eclectic boutiques.

1:00 p.m.

Grab lunch on the historic BBQ trail, and in my perfect day, I can dine at both Wilber's and Grady's!

3:00 p.m.

It's the heat of the day, so I grab my float and my favorite book and cruise the Neuse using the Wayne County Paddletrails system!

5:00 p.m.

Stop off at the Goldsborough Bridge Battlefield where I can tour one of the south's important Civil War sites.

7:00 p.m.

Time for dinner at Jay's Sushi & Burger Bar in downtown Goldsboro before catching a show at the Paramount Theater.

10:00 p.m.

Call it an early night back at the cabin because I want to get in a 3 mile hike before catching the flightline tour of Seymour Johnson AFB in the morning!
