Goldsboro Union Station
Multimodal Transportation Center

Goldsboro City Council
August 17, 2009
Immediate Needs

Greyhound Depot

Gateway Transit Transfer Facility
NCDOT Purchased Union Station...
... This Study Establishes the Design
Study Area

Goldsboro Union Station

NCRR Wye
Study Process

- Staff Steering Committee
- Consulting Team
- Review Background Information
- Stakeholders’ Views, Requirements
- Transit Needs Forecast
- Updated Functional Specification
- Site Layout
Functional Specification

- Existing needs, short-term plans
- Allow for long-term transit growth & trains
- Flexible building space for ancillaries
- Drop-off, taxis, etc
Key Goals for Site Layout

Master Plan Development Potential

Meet Transportation Needs

Historic Preservation

[Diagram showing site layout with labels for Master Plan, Development Potential, and Historic Preservation, along with transportation icons and a historic image of a train station.]
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
Initial Phase
What Happens Next?

- Goldsboro City Council adopts report
- City, Gateway Transit, NCDOT approve site layout
- NCDOT works with City & Gateway Transit:
  - Environmental documents
  - Site rehabilitation
  - Identify funding sources for initial phase
  - Detailed design
Yes, It Really Happens!